MRS. KATE SPRAGUE DEAD.

Daughter of Salmon P. Chase Expired In Washington—Children at Her Bedside.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, wife of a former governor of Rhode Island and the daughter of the late Salmon P. Chase, governor of Ohio, United States senator and chief justice of the United States supreme court, died at her home, Edgewood, in Washington's suburbs. She was 69 years old. For about three months she had been suffering with a complication of liver and kidney troubles, but had consented to medical treatment only ten days ago. She grew steadily worse until the end came. At the bedside were her three daughters, Miss Kittie Sprague, who lived with her mother, Miss Portia Sprague of Narragansett Pier, and Mrs. Donaldson of Brooklyn. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

A SWIFT RACE TO THE COAST

Tenth Pennsylvania Committee Trying to Beat the Transport to 'Frisco. Slow Raising of Money.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 1.—The journey of the Tenth Pennsylvania escort committee enroute to San Francisco has been made through to this point under the most auspicious circumstances and on schedule time. The escort committee's race to reach the coast before the Senator grows more excited and the transcontinental trip is being made in almost record-breaking time. A run of 82 miles was made in 92 minutes. A speed of 45 to 50 miles per hour is maintained continually.

Monday was the anniversary of the battle of Malate, and the committee celebrated the event. Chairman Muehlbauer presided. W. B. Cuthbertson of New Brighton, whose brother, Major Harry O. Cuthbertson, led the regiment in the charge which drove back the Spanish attack, made the principal address. Other addresses were made and patriotic toasts were drunk.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—A special meeting of select and common councils was held, at which the resolution appropriating $5,000 for the reception of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment was passed unanimously.

Mayor W. J. Diehl was much disappointed over the manner in which the citizens are responding to his appeal for money for the reception of the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers. There is no question that it will take $40,000 to carry out the plans of the committee, and at present there was over $22,000 in the fund.

By tomorrow the railroad company will have to have a certified check for $25,000, or it will be impossible to make arrangements with the western roads. A great many persons who have promised contributions to the fund have not sent in their checks, and the treasurer of the fund, D. R. Torrence, said that he would like to have all the money at once.

She Insisted.

"Did that man to whom you were just talking say your affairs were mismanaged?" asked Mr. Meekton's wife severely.

"Now, Henrietta, that was simply a little aside. It wasn't intended for your ears at all."

"I insist!"

"Oh, well, if you insist, he didn't say my affairs were mismanaged! He said they were Mrs. Meekton's!"—Washington Star.

It blesseth him that gives and him that receives!—Fels-Naptha soap, 5c, and your money back if you want it.

She was a kind and loving mother, and her children have the sympathy of the community in which she lived so long. There will be one vacant chair and her loving voice will no longer be heard in the family gathering, but we feel assured that her presence will always be felt and appreciated, and, while we remember that she has gone upon that journey into the great beyond from which there is no return, we can so live that when time shall be no more for us we can go to her and be welcomed by that sweet smile of greeting she had while on earth.

THE PRESIDENT GRATIFIED.

Fleeced at the Way Mrs. McKinley's Health Improved.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN, N. Y., Aug. 1.—After disposing of the huge pile of mail matter that had accumulated over Sunday, the president went for a walk with Dr. Rixey. The air was keen and clear and they had to walk at a brisk pace to keep warm. After luncheon he went for a drive with Colonel Legrande B. Cannon. The president himself held the reins and displayed much skill in handling them. Toward evening he took another short walk with Dr. Rixey. The president was much gratified at the rapidity with which Mrs. McKinley was improving in health.

Vice President Hobart probably will arrive here Saturday from Long Branch for an indefinite stay.

Today there is to be a golf tournament and a baseball game on the hotel grounds and the president will probably attend both.

Sir Philip Mansfield Dead.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Sir Philip Mansfield, who was mayor of Northampton in 1893 and who represented Northampton in parliament in the Liberal interest from 1891 to 1895, is dead, aged 80 years.

An old Ash Wednesday Custom.

On one time it was on Ash Wednesday the custom to appoint an official of the English palaces to crow the hours of the day, like a cock, as a reminder of the death of St. Peter. This practice excited the furious indignation of George II. His ignorance of English made it very difficult for the courtiers to explain that the royal cock crower was not making fun of him. The cock crower was a salaried officer at the English court as late as 1828.
